1. Mr Straw's House

Mr Straw's House offers a glimpse into a house which resisted the advances of modern technology. Having been lived in until 1990, but not renovated since the 1920s, the house offers a look into a domestic house which still contains all of its contents. Covering 80 years, we are able to touch upon a variety of subjects and historical eras.

School Group Information

Our educational activities are still being developed. Schools visiting the house will be able to have a guided tour of the fascinating home with original interior from 1923. Maximum group size is 25, due to limited space.

National Curriculum Subjects and Age Range/ Key Stage

Activities cover a variety of themes including: My House, World War 2, Collecting, Family Tree, Reuse/ recycle.

Education Pack? Yes

There is a basic education pack, which is currently being re-developed. We have a guidebook and can discuss specific requirements with schools.

Opening Times

Open Tuesday - Saturday, 11am - 4pm, however, for schools we are able to open slightly earlier.

Price Information

£3 per pupil, teachers are free.
