

Make your own theatre using an old cereal box. You could add a curtain using scrap pieces of material. Then make your own puppets using materials from around your house. Use your puppets to retell your favourite stories or to make up your own stories.

