

If you are going for a walk, you could collect some natural resources such as pebbles, sticks, leaves, or petals to create your own piece of natural art. There are so many different ideas, you could use one of the ideas below or create your own.

Don't forget to send us a photo of your creation.

