

Natural Art

Have you ever created a rainbow using natural materials?

At this time of year there are so many different colours to be seen outside. Why not get the whole family involved in collecting and creating your own natural rainbow.

We'd love to see photos of your creations.

