EVENING
SUMMER
FESTIVAL WITH MOVIES AND MUSIC IN THE MARQUEE

Welcome

Working here, every day is different – one minute I'm singing songs at our lunchtime club the next I'm passing ABBA in the green room. Spring/Summer promises to be no exception. Drag queens, fan dancing, ghosts and princess pop stars! Not to mention the music of Northern Soul, ACDC, Frankie Valli, Tina Turner, Elton John, Lionel Richie, The Dubliners, Fleetwood Mac... and so many more.

Local families are the heart and soul of what we do. Let's get the kids off their screens for some quality family time. Dinosaur Adventure Live (12 April) will be roar-some and our famous sell-out Easter Panto returns for 2023 with Aladdin (15 and 16 April), followed by a new addition of Spring Panto with Rapunzel (30 May).

Our weekly stay and play sessions in the museum are free and perfect for little ones. We've got loads of ways to put your family at ease with pop-up play stations in all our spaces, sensory backpacks to borrow and we're happy to lend you our ear defenders or booster seats for no charge.

If you're worried about taking your little one for their first theatre experience why not try them with something gentle, that's not too long, featuring familiar characters that they'll know off the telly? CBeebies favourite Sarah and Duck (25 and 26 July) return in July and the season closes with childhood TV royalty In the Night Garden (6 and 7 September).

What started in COVID and has now become a bit of a 'thing' is Oddsocks, returning for a third year with Much Ado About Nothing (2 July). Their hugely successful rock and roll musical extravaganza Shakespeare in the Park sees audiences flock come rain or shine with their picnics and camping chairs.

Our treasured local amateurs return to us in April with Hi-De-Hi (Masque Productions) and Little Shop of Horrors (Heanor Musical Theatre Company) along with thousands of young dancers who grace our stage throughout the year. Support them if you can.

Opera makes a welcome to return to the Palace this September with Opera Up Close's Opera Cocktail (20 September). A jukebox of arias, duets and ensembles from the world's most famous operas live in Mansfield. Bliss.

Mansfield Museum's programme is absolutely chocker with exhibitions to excite, inspire, drop jaws and keep the kids occupied. The Windrush exhibition It Runs Through Us continues throughout the summer with Windrush Day celebrations on 17 June, don't miss this celebration of Caribbean culture and the contribution of the Windrushers in Mansfield. The Undiscovered Island is a playful, underwater world where children can interact with giant corals and musical stepping stones. Local artist Jonathan Annable returns with his trademark work and Elmer and Friends invites families to take a walk through Elmer's jungle and discover stories along the way. Thingamabobs completes the summer exhibition season with a mysterious circus like no other.

You may have heard that Mansfield District Council's Cultural Services (that's the theatre and museum) has become an Arts Council National Portfolio Organisation. This means we'll be delivering loads of new projects that help bring more arts, culture, creativity and heritage to you in Mansfield. Watch this space.

We hope that you enjoy this jam-packed season of limitless entertainment, there's something for everyone!

 Sunday 9 April 7.30pm

 Tickets £31.50

 Duration 1hr 50mins

"You've never seen me like this before. You've never been this close. I'm inviting you to spend an intimate evening with me – think of it as coming back to my place for a night of stories and songs."

Pellow Talk is a chance to learn all about me, not just as a singer and songwriter with Wet Wet Wet, but as a boy and a man. It's a chance to understand the DNA of the hits that we've listened to and loved over the years. The evening will be wrapped in music, from songs you know to ones you'll get to know.

There'll be laughter as we travel from the banks of the River Clyde to the top of the charts, then onto Broadway and beyond. There'll be no mask and no character. This is me, Marti, stepping out of the shadows, speaking directly to you.

The invitation is there. I hope you come and spend some time with me. Enough living has been done for a life to unfold. Enough years have passed for a story to be told."

Starring Mary Byrne (X Factor), Jessica Martin (Copycats), Rebecca Wheatley (Casualty) and Susie Fenwick (West End Star), we present Menopause the Musical 2 - Cruising through Menopause. In this hilarious sequel to smash-hit Menopause the Musical®, we fast-forward five years to catch up with the same four characters for tales of their lives, loves and losses as they set off on the high seas.

Hot flushes, mood swings, memory lapses and weight gain; Cruising through Menopause is a truly funny, heartfelt and reassuring look at the 'joys' of menopause. When your life is a bumpy ride full of twists and turns, it's hard to find and keep true friends. But step on board and we'll take you on a trip of self-discovery, love and friendship all backed by a soundtrack of hysterical parodied hits!

For these four ladies the menopause was not the beginning of the end, but the beginning of a beautiful friendship where love conquers, and friendships never fail.

TEACHERS LEAVERS '22

BY JOHN GODBER

 Monday 15 May 7.30pm

 Tickets £18.50 | students £10 (teachers free)

 Duration 2hrs 10mins

Hilarious, high energy and full blooded, Teachers Leavers brings to life an array of terrifying teachers and hopeless pupils through the eyes of Salty, Gail and Hobby; three Year 11 students facing a scary world, armed only with imagination and a joy of theatre.

It's 2022 at Whitewall, a struggling academy that's failed its Ofsted. The bell's gone and they can't afford a new one. The first fifteen have lost sixty-seven nil and it's not just the playing field that needs levelling up. Sadly, Whitewall's led by donkeys. So's Whitehall, come to that. Enter Miss Nixon, a new drama teacher with fire in her belly, a lesson for the elite and a well 'sick' TikTok!

Will Miss Nixon abandon her students for a soothing private school? Who puts the bounce in Miss Prime, the PE teacher? Will Mrs Parry ever find her Koko? And why does everyone smell of spring onions?

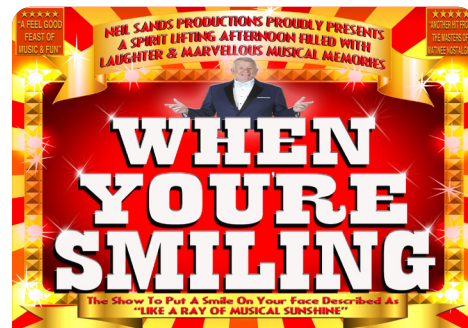

Unplug, switch off and buckle up for Teachers Leavers, John Godber's breath-taking, breakneck comedy about education for the 'haves' and 'have nots' and a generation left behind.

Commercial Opportunities

Venue Hire

Put your next event centre stage at Mansfield Palace Theatre or Mansfield Museum. We can tailor meetings or team building days to your bespoke needs and also offer sponsorship opportunities throughout our spaces. Contact our Commercial and Operations Manager Lucy, on lgiles@mansfield.gov.uk.

Membership scheme

Support your local theatre by becoming a 'member' for just £40 per year and receive exclusive benefits such as sneak previews of each brochure and priority booking for must-see shows. You'll also get invites to events and the opportunity to sit on theatre panels which influence programming decisions.

Leeming Lounge

Add some luxury to your visit in our beautiful Leeming Lounge. For just £100, you and your party (maximum 50 guests) can enjoy private use of our upstairs bar and seating area pre-show and during the interval. Speak to box office to check availability and book.

Name a seat

Naming a seat is the perfect way to celebrate a special occasion, commemorate the memory of a loved one or to mark those magic theatre moments as a family.

Mansfield Palace Theatre has been the jewel in the crown for Mansfield since its opening over 100 years ago. However, time has taken its toll and our joints are creaking, our roof is leaking and we're in dire need of a facelift. Every penny of your donation will go towards helping us look after this treasured historic building as an asset for Mansfield. Perhaps you love sitting in the same seat every time you come? Or maybe you just want to give something back to the theatre you love.

A seat in the front stalls £250

A seat in back stalls £150

A seat in the balcony £100

Seat sponsorship is acknowledged in the theatre with your own personal plaque on the chosen seat for the next 10 years. To sponsor a seat, contact the box office to begin your dedication today.

School trips

School trips can be a powerful tool to enhance learning and develop personal, social and emotional skills. We want students to engage with our people and places; from backstage tours to workshops around history or drama, we have you covered. We provide fantastic opportunities for pupils across the Key Stages to learn about their local environment, its history, its people, its natural features – and how they can do their bit to preserve it. Our learning programme offers teachers a dynamic and cost-effective way to enhance classroom coverage of important areas of the National Curriculum in friendly, accessible and stimulating surroundings. You can come to us or we can come to you.

If your school is interested in engaging with us please contact us to discuss an idea, a project, a special trip, or for a copy of our brand new schools brochure which combines theatre and museum activities.

Out of the Box

 Every Thursday at Mansfield Palace Theatre
6.15pm – 8.30pm for ages 16yrs+

We welcome and invite anyone who wants to develop their listening, teamwork and creativity or simply to meet new friends.

Watch this Space:

Technical Academy

We will be launching a brand new class for age 13yrs+ for those who are interested in developing skills in the technical aspects of theatre. Young people will have the opportunity to learn skills in lighting, sound, and stagecraft from industry professionals.

Get This

Get This is our project designed to provide opportunities for looked after children.

Mansfield Palace Theatre has been working with Inspire Youth Arts and Captivate and has developed initial projects that we now look to continue that work going forward.

We know that creativity boosts confidence, supports mental health and wellbeing, and makes a difference through these challenging times. We want to ensure cared for children and young people are not forgotten about and get the best opportunities to reach their fullest potential. We want to empower looked after children to think creatively!

Write Track

Mansfield Palace Theatre has been running writing programmes for over 15 years now; aiding many local writers in their development. We are now looking to re-launch new classes for those interested in writing for the stage and screen, short stories, poetry, anything goes! There will be classes for 13 – 19 years and for 19+ years.

Future Movement

In participation with Rambert Dance, we will be looking to continue our progress for young people age 16 – 19 years following our recent successful pilot project. This provides an opportunity for young people to explore difference aspects of the arts and meet with current leading professionals in their field.

For questions and enquiries relating to any of our Learning and Aspiration projects, please contact Christopher Neil: cneil@mansfield.gov.uk | 01623 463375

Write Track – Identity!

 Wednesday 19 to Thursday 20 April
7.30pm

 Venue Create Theatre, Vision West
Notts College, Derby Road, Mansfield
NG18 5BH

 Tickets £7.50 or £4 for students

In partnership with Vision West Notts College Performing Arts department, a selection of short plays from local young playwrights is presented.

What does identity mean to you? Is it about where you come from or where you live? Is it which group of people you belong to? Your age or sexual identity?

Mansfield Palace continues to bring new writing to the stage with its well established programme of professionally produced productions with students from the performing arts courses at Vision West Notts College taking on the acting roles.
