Everyone in Mansfield should have the opportunity to be creative.

Over the next three years, we'll be putting on loads of fantastic cultural experiences all over town. We'll bring people together to feel happy and proud and take more of what we do to the streets of Mansfield, all thanks to Arts Council England support and funding, so look out for their logo throughout this brochure.

Here's a snippet of what's coming up this Autumn...

The Trials

We're working with Nottingham Playhouse on a new project called 'How Dare You?' which will end in an exciting new play performed by young people from all over Nottingham City and Nottinghamshire. How Dare You is all about young people demanding more of us adults to take effective action now on issues that affect their future. Watch this space for more.

Refresh Mansfield – October half term

Throughout the last few months, we spoke to loads of young people in Mansfield about their experiences, hopes and dreams. This October half term, the voices of young people will take over with a vibrant display of quotes and messages. It is hoped that if young people's voices are under the noses of grown-ups, more of them might listen.

Jason Wilsher-Mills Exhibition – Saturday 9 December to Saturday 9 March

Internationally exhibited Wakefield-born artist Jason Wilsher-Mills will brighten up the winter months in the museum with his vibrant, celebratory and poignant exhibition.

Exploring themes of disability, his colourful and bold sculptures, prints and digital works are a joyful way to begin serious conversations.

CEZANNE: Portraits of a Life

 Friday 22 September

One cannot appreciate 20th century art without understanding the significance and genius of Paul Cézanne. Filmed at the National Portrait Gallery in London, with additional interviews from experts and curators from MoMA in New York, National Gallery of Art in Washington DC, and Musée d'Orsay in Paris, and correspondence from the artist himself, the film takes audiences to the places Cézanne lived and worked and sheds light on an artist who is perhaps one of the least known and yet most important of all the Impressionists.

Narrated by multi-award winning actor Brian Cox.

MARY CASSATT: Painting The Modern Woman

 Friday 13 October

Mary Cassatt made a career painting the lives of the women around her. Her radical images showed them as intellectual, curious and engaging, which was a major shift in the way women appeared in art.

Presenting her astonishing prints, pastels and paintings, this film introduces us to the often-overlooked Impressionist whose own career was as full of contradiction as the women she painted.

HOPPER: An American Love Story

 Friday 10 November

Hopper's work is the most recognisable art in America – popular, praised, and mysterious. Countless painters, photographers, filmmakers and musicians have been influenced by his art – but who was he, and how did a struggling illustrator create such a bounty of notable work?

This new film takes a deep look into Hopper's art, his life, and his relationships. From his early career as an illustrator; his wife giving up her own promising art career to be his manager; his critical and commercial acclaim; and in his own words – this film explores the enigmatic personality behind the brush...

Combined with expert interviews, diaries, and a startling visual reflection of American life, Hopper brings to life America's arguably most influential artist.

Visually stunning and deeply moving, it's the musical that revolutionised modern theatre; an exhilarating, no-holds-barred assault on the military incompetence and inconceivable disregard for human life WWI has come to represent.

Brimming with timeless songs and razor-sharp satire, Oh What A Lovely War is a hilarious, heart-breaking snapshot of life for those caught in the crossfire of conflict, a unanimous voice from the trenches and a timely warning from the theatre of war itself. It's been a rough couple of years for blokes. Toxic masculinity has grabbed all the headlines and ruined it for your standard model, who have been put under the microscope like never before.

Geoff can see that despite the social media vortex, your man in the street, average Joe and your John Smiths just keep plodding on, fuelled by a diet of football, sheds, super-hero films, sporting autobiographies, wearing socks at all times and strategically burying feelings.

A kindly and funny stock-take of both himself his fellow man, Basic Bloke unlocks some of the more complicated behaviour of your husbands, dads and brothers.

Ukrainian National Opera presents Madama Butterfly – one of the most colourful and exotic operas.

Music by G. Puccini. Sung in Italian with English surtitles.

Performed by the Dnipro Opera, from Ukraine, and featuring an impressive cast who will be accompanied by a live orchestra with over 30 musicians.

No opera can match the tragedy and sorrow of Puccini's Madama Butterfly.

Set in Japan at the turn of the last century, it is the story of a doomed love affair between an American naval officer and his young Japanese bride whose self-sacrifice and defiance of her family leads to tragedy.

Though infinitely sad and tragic, the compelling tale of Madama Butterfly remained Puccini's favourite opera – his supreme theatrical achievements also gave the world its most sublime and beautiful arias in history - One Fine Day and Love Duet, as well as the Humming Chorus which has been popular with opera-goers for over a century.

This touching tale of innocent love crushed between two utterly different cultures resonates as strongly as ever in today's world.
